Child Sexual Exploitation	Brook	e-Learning: Courses for Professionals.	This is a health resource but carries transferable learning for schools. 'Combating CSE' has been produced by Brook on behalf of

			the Department of Health. It is designed to equip all those working within health with the knowledge to understand, recognise and respond to CSE. The tool takes approximately 40 minutes to complete and uses facts, scenarios, videos and assessments to highlight the warning signs and build knowledge and confidence in applying the appropriate safeguarding procedures. https://www.brook.org.uk/our-work/cse-e-learning-tool
Child Sexual Exploitation	Barnardos	'Wud U?' App	This app is designed to help teachers and other professionals who work with young people explain how to keep themselves safe from sexual exploitation. The app follows three male and three female characters through several scenarios that a teenager might face and could potentially lead to abuse – for example, being taken to a party in an unfamiliar place or being asked to send an explicit photograph. The user is asked questions about how they might have responded to the situation at different points and receives advice based upon the decisions they make. https://www.barnardos.org.uk/what_we_do/our_work/sexual_exploitation/wud-u-app
